

I strongly oppose the CTIA's attempts to reconsider the hearing aid compatibility rule. It's the FCC's job to protect consumers, not industries. 6 million Americans need access to cell phones. It is becoming the dominant form of communication, and excluding the hard-of-hearing is DISCRIMINATION, and should not be endorsed by FCC.